THREAT TO RESUME WAR BRINGS QUICK RESULTS

Conference Adjourns to Friday and Peace Seems Certain.

London, Jan. 2.-After their protracted diplomatic skirmishing the Turks finally capitulated to a majority of the demands of the Balkan allies at the session of the peace conference in St. James palace. Through Rechad Pasha they agreed to cede practically the whole of the Ottoman empire's European dominions, except Adrianople and the territory between it and Constantinople, to their victorious, but traditionally despised neigh-

The terms the Turkish delegates prese ted to the conference as a counter proposal to the demands of the allies were:

Frst-The rectification of the Turko-balgarian frontier by making the boundary west of the line now occupied by the troops of the allies in the vilayet of Adrianople.

Second-The question of the status of Adrianople to be settled by Turkey and Bulgaria direct.

Third-The cession of the remainder of European Turkey, including Janina and Scutari, to the allies. Fourth-The Albanian and Cretan questions to be solved by the powers. 1 fth-The Aegean islands to rema Turkish.

Threaten to Resume War.

The announcement of these terms was wrung from the Ottoman delewith the greatest difficulty. They came only after Rechad Pasha had reiterated Turkey's desire to shift the responsibility for adjudicating all the vital questions to the great powers and the representatives of es had registered their un changeable objections to such a course and plainly had given the Turks to understand that the failure of the Ottoman delegates to embark upon serious negotiations would mean a resumption of hostilities in Southeastern Europe.

The sitting was the most momentous and exciting since the beginning of the conference. The Greek premier, M. Venizelos, presided and invited Rechad Pasha to present the Turkish counter proposals, as the Turks last Monday had agreed to do.

Rechad said his interpretation of the badly transmitted telegrams of the early week had been correct, his nment proposing to submit all questions at issue, except Adrianople, to settlement by the powers. This caused an outburst of indignation, which M. Venizelos was hardly able to put down. Several of the delegates shouted that it was not dignified to turn such vital matters into a joke, while others observed that they had not come all the way to London and remained here for three weeks to hear a proposition advanced which might have been made at the time the armistice was signed. Reject Mediation of Powers.

When relative calm was restored M. Venizelos, Dr. S. Daneff, leader of the Bulgarian delegation, M. Novakevitch, Servian, and M. Miyuskovitch, Montenegrin, each for their respective countries, declared they would not accept the proposed mediation by the powers and insisted that the Turkish delegates present a practical and defined proposal.

Rechad then announced that his instructions contained another alternaive and requested time to formulate it. After a short recess Rechad stated that Turkey, desiring to give tangible proof of her love for peace, in deference to advice received from the powers, was ready to make the maxinum of possible concessions to the kechad was given the written reply the allies. This, said the allies, would maintain their original terms, but for the sake of the discussion they would invite Rechad to present to the next sitting of the conference a map of the district of Adrianople with the frontier line proposed by Turkey marked out on it. The conference then adjourned until Friday.

ON MISBRANDING OF GOODS

If Provision on Rubber and Leather Business Go Through Government Will Have Power Over Various Businesses Never Expected a Few Years Ago-Order Likened to A. P. A.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 2. - [Special.] -Years ago General Grosvenor, he whom Champ Clark called "Old Figgers," introduced in the house a bill providing for the proper branding of woolen goods and penalizing manufacturers or shippers who sent shoddy or other goods under false names from one state to another. By use of the interstate commerce provision in the constitution he was going to prevent the misbranding of woolen goods, just as later the misbrauding of food and drugs was stopped.

Congressman Oldfield of Arkansas has a bill to do the same with rubber goods which Grosvenor proposed to do with woolens. A man has been elected to congress in Michigan whose issue was that he purposed to stop false dealing in woolen and leather goods.

COMBINATION SALE

Brainerd's Two Greatest Stores Unite in the most Marvelous Merchandising Event Ever Staged in Minnesota

$100,000 The Combined Stocks $100,000

GREAT enthusiasm greeted the announcement of our combination sale. Everybody is talking about it. No similar announcement ever made in this or any other city has been received with so much enthusiasm as this news. People far and wide are planning to attend this Brainerd's Greatest Sale. This sale will be far greater in bargain giving than any previous attempt ever made in Northern Minnesota. We are going to cut each and every article in both stocks to the core of cost and less. We have a potent reasor for adopting such drastic measures. We bought heavily of the finest and most dependable merchandise for all ages that ever graced a Brainerd store. No hard luck stories to tell, yet all know that we have been beseiged with a backward fall and winter season that has set us back, not only in business, but left us tremendously overstocked, and it is absolutely necessary that we cut these two stocks down and turn into cash at once to pay bills which are now due. Now for an all important reason told hereof a look at the prices will prove to you that there is "method in our madness" and they will beckon you hurriedly to these Brainerd's greatest stores. You'll want to be on hand of course on opening day, but if you miss the first there will be others just as good, so gather up you nickles, quarters and dollars and come prepared to buy your necessities for years to come.

Walking slowly to the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Sarah Irwin, the bridal party advanced to the improvised altar in the parlor where the beautiful and simple ceremony which made them man and wife was performed. OTTOMAN DELEGATES SURRENDER

Balkan Demands.

THREAT TO RESUME WAR BRINGS QUICK RESULTS

Conference Adjourns to Friday and Peace Seems Certain.

London, Jan. 2.-After their protracted diplomatic skirmishing the Turks finally capitulated to a majority of the demands of the Balkan allies at the session of the peace conference in St. James palace. Through Rechad Pasha they agreed to cede practically the whole of the Ottoman empire's European dominions, except Adrianople and the territory between it and Constantinople, to their victorious, but traditionally despised neigh-

The terms the Turkish delegates prese ted to the conference as a counter proposal to the demands of the allies were:

Frst-The rectification of the Turko-balgarian frontier by making the boundary west of the line now occupied by the troops of the allies in the vilayet of Adrianople.

Second-The question of the status of Adrianople to be settled by Turkey and Bulgaria direct.

Third-The cession of the remainder of European Turkey, including Janina and Scutari, to the allies.

Fourth-The Albanian and Cretan quations to be solved by the powers. 1 ith-The Aegean islands to rema Turkish.

Threaten to Resume War.

The announcement of these terms was wrung from the Ottoman delegates with the greatest difficulty. They came only after Rechad Pasha had reiterated Turkey's desire to shift the responsibility for adjudicating all the vital questions to the great powers and the representatives of and "betrayer" of the conspiracy. the allies had registered their unchangeable objections to such a course and plainly had given the Turks to understand that the failure of the Ottoman delegates to embark upon serious negotiations would mean a resumption of hostilities in Southeastern Europe. The sitting was the most momentous and exciting since the beginning of the conference. The Greek premier, M. Venizelos, presided and invited Rechad Pasha to present the Turkish counter proposals, as the Turks last Monday had agreed to do.

Rechad said his interpretation of the badly transmitted telegrams of the early week had been correct, his go nment proposing to submit all questions at issue, except Adrianople, to settlement by the powers. This caused an outburst of indignation, which M. Venizelos was hardly able to put down. Several of the delegates W. Basey, Indianapolis; William shouted that it was not dignified to turn such vital matters into a joke, nane, Philadelphia. while others observed that they had not come all the way to London and a proposition advanced which might have been made at the time the armistice was signed.

Reject Mediation of Powers.

When relative calm was restored M. Venizelos, Dr. S. Daneff, leader of the Bulgarian delegation, M. Novakevitch, Servian, and M. Miyuskovitch, Montenegrin, each for their respective countries, declared they would not accept the proposed mediation by the powers and insisted that the Turkish delegates present a practical and defined proposal.

Rechad then announced that his instructions contained another alternative and requested time to formulate it. After a short recess Rechad stated defendants in the dynamite conspiracy | WOMAN LOST IN BLIZZARD that Turkey, desiring to give tangible trial, received an anonymous comproof of her love for peace, in defer- munication threatening his life. Washington, Jan. 2. - [Special.] . Years ago General Grosvenor, he whom Champ Clark called "Old Figgers," introduced in the house a bill providing for the proper branding of woolen goods and penalizing manufacturers or goods under false names from one state to another. By use of the interstate commerce provision in the con stitution he was going to prevent the misbranding of woolen goods, just as later the misbranding of food and drugs was stopped.

Congressman Oldfield of Arkansas has a bill to do the same with rubber with woolens. A man has been elected to congress in Michigan whose issue was that he purposed to stop false dealing in woolen and leather goods.

Brainerd's Two Greatest Stores Unite in the most Marvelous Merchandising Event Ever Staged in Minnesota

$100,000 The Combined Stocks $100,000 Total Nearly

REAT enthusiasm greeted the announcement of our combination sale. Everybody is talking about it. No similar announcement ever made in this or any other city has been received with so much enthusiasm as this news. People far and wide are planning to attend this Brainerd's Greatest Sale. This sale will be far greater in bargain giving than any previous attempt ever made in Northern Minnesota. We are going to cut each and every article in both stocks to the core of cost and less. We have a potent reasor for adopting such drastic measures. We bought heavily of the finest and most dependable merchandise for all ages that ever graced a Brainerd store. No hard luck stories to tell, yet all know that we have been beseiged with a backward fall and winter season that has set us back, not only in business, but left us tremendously overstocked, and it is absolutely necessary that we cut these two stocks down and turn into cash at once to pay bills which are now due. Now for an all important reason told hereof a look at the prices will prove to you that there is "method in our madness" and they will beckon you hurriedly to these Brainerd's greatest stores. You'll want to be on hand of course on opening day, but if you miss the first there will be others just as good, so gather up you nickles, quarters and dollars and come prepared to buy your necessities for years to come.
